“WELL DONE, THOU GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANTS”

In an age when most people are concerned with personal achievement, monetary gains, and social prestige, there are those few who forego these factors to give freely and generously to our youths so that students may develop into well adjusted, responsible citizens in a great democracy. Some teachers remain at Stow a short time — others a lifetime. To these teachers who have been here twenty years or longer, we wish to pay tribute by dedicating the Stoanno of 1958 to them. Our thanks and congratulations are yours.

IN MEMORIAM

ARTHUR MORRIS

1930-1957

In service of his country, Arthur lost his life on May 28, 1957. The full loss to his country, his community, his family, and his friends cannot be comprehended. Graduated from Stow High School in 1948 as president of his class — received a scholarship from Mt. Union College from which he was graduated in 1952 — studied law at Western Reserve from which he was graduated in 1955 — entered the Navy in 1955, he was standing on the threshold of life with the potential for a life of service when the tragedy struck.

IN MEMORIAM

BARBARA KING

1941-1957

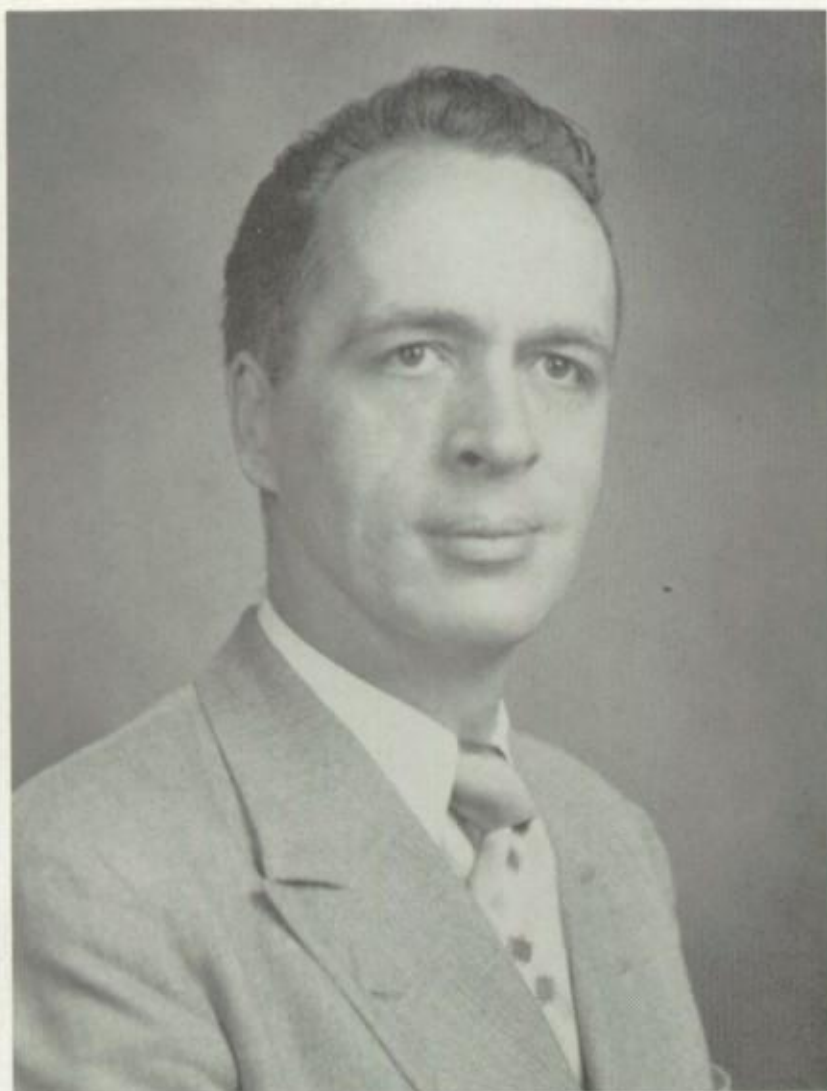

Fun-loving, happy-go-lucky Barbara was suddenly taken from her family, her friends, and her class-mates on December 9, 1957 in a riding accident. There is now an emptiness wherever she once had been. Missing are her ready smile, her whole-hearted participation in school events, and her interest in athletic pursuits. She was a member of Future Nurses of America, Girl Scouts, Y-Teens, Debbies, and G.A.A. — a well-rounded personality.

ADMINISTRATION

To be the head of a school, its overseer, its judge, its keeper, and its organizer is a fulltime job. In fact, there is a lot of overtime put in — but the reward is more than gratifying — it is a satisfaction that everything is running smoothly, and that missing links are replaced, while the rusty spots are smoothed out.

CLASS HISTORY

The history of the class of 1958 is quite an illustrious one from its beginning to its end in the Senior Year.

The survivors of all twelve years at Stow are: Dick Brubaker, Gail Thomas, Betty Minier, Wilma Lawlis, Connie Godfrey, Allan Worester, Suzanne Thorpe, Kathy Shamblin, Jim Dodd, Mary Shultz, Dan Jones, Dennis Richards, Jane Clark, Joan Idle, Roy Armstrong, Genny Moore, John Corley, Jim Hurd, Norma Jones, Jim Murfin, Nancy Oesch, Deane Hamilton, Ross Holden, Becky Everett, Judy Stuiber, John Oblak, Don Witner, Darryl Hickey, Joyce Kline, Carolyn Wilson, Margie Jackson, Bertha Cross, Carmen Fulper, Bill Godbey, Carole Wyle, Margie Smith, Shirley Pimlott, and Judie DePew.

The first grade began with a bang. Innocent, little John Oblak was pushed into a mud puddle by big Dick Brubaker. John told Dick's mother and let her settle the score. There was more trouble with chairs. Jim Murfin got into trouble for pulling a chair from under Connie Godfrey. Becky Everett just kept falling out of hers. Ron Burt came that year.

There was more trouble in second grade. Margie Jackson and Joyce Kline got slapped for giggling. Bertha Cross got her legs smacked for staying out too long at recess. A famous foursome around school was Carol Wyle, Roy Armstrong, Judie DePew, and Deane Hamelton, who played house everyday.

In third grade, an indignant Ralph Capila refused to take the garbage to the cafeteria. Bashful Joey Burian was chased by the girls, caught, and held until they all kissed him. Kendra Downing and Claudia Lewis came this year.

The difficult school began in fourth grade. Marilyn Shaver and Christina Farinacci arrived at this time.

Dan Jones got lost in the woods behind the school in fifth grade. Shirley Pimlott, alias, Roughie gave poor Bill Hunt a black eye. Bold Judy Cornell asked Mrs. Biggs if she had false teeth. Winter brought a constant snowball battle between the fifth and the sixth graders. The girls made the snowballs. Ross Holden won the name of "human bomber" because he could slide the farthest.

The sixth graders were the "wheels" of the Town Hall, but just the same, Mrs. Dennig left her mark on them. The boys took a bike hike one afternoon. Their reward was one month's detention. Marilyn Shaver was left tied to a tree while playing cowboys and Norma Jones was locked in a closet. This year Mike Bender, Mary Kinsey, and Tim Stemple, and Bob Humphrey entered Stow. Mike tried so hard to make a good impression that he knocked himself out.

When seventh grade came they were at last able to establish themselves in the high school. This year Dave Kuklke, Dick and Don Bennett, Doyle Carpenter, and Noel Peirce came to Stow. Judy Cornell and Margaret Cooper were leaning out the windows when Mr. Sloop caught them. He couldn't find his paddle so they were saved. Jim Hurd wasn't so lucky. He put Mr. Sloop's paddle to use when he flicked Study Hall. There was a measles epidemic this year and no one could go to Connie Godfrey's Party. This year began the famous Kinsey-Mackenroth romance. After dodging of a certain tennis ball and writing thousands of statements, they passed on to the eighth grade.

This year they were the sophisticated 8th grade. The eighth grade basketball team won the Junior-High trophy. Valerie Caudill came and set quite a record by getting kicked out of English class twice in the first month. Innocent Lucie Morrison was never suspected by the teachers of carrying a squirt gun. Good old troop 313 made history by being the first and only troop in Stow to receive "Curved Bar." Marge Jackson was so shook-up after Al Worcester gave her her first kiss, that she fell off a log. This year was ended by the 8th grade party.

At last we entered high school and with quite a bang. The freshmen were noted for the parties they threw, much to the dismay of the upper-class girls. One continuous party was 8th period study hall in 102. This year Kool Beckie Hoskin, Dave Corbett, Sandy Clark, Mildred Mackey, Helen Carraciolo and notorious Bill Hatton arrived. Jane Clark and Barb Spear, inseparable friends, were constantly arguing.

CLASS WILL

We, the members of the SENIOR CLASS of 1958 at Stow, Ohio, all supposedly being of sound mind, memory, and body, do make and declare this to be our last will and testament.

To the FACULTY we give any bits of information and knowledge that they might have obtained from our recitations, exam papers, and our super intelligent test papers.

To the JUNIORS we leave our highly respectable place as Seniors and hope they carry on all we have left undone.

To the SOPHOMORES we bequeath our

DAVE CORBETT wills his green hat with the feather to MR. KIMPTON in hopes he can keep his head warm next winter.

BILL HUNT gives the map to his secret smoking lounge to BOB OBLACK.

NORMA JONES leaves to poor MRS. KAUFMAN four brothers and sisters yet to come.

DAVE KUHLE wishes to give one bashed-in fender and one burned out Fordomatic to that up and coming hot-rodder, MARC ARNOLD.

LUCIE MORRISON bequeaths her meek manner to JERRY WRIGHT in hopes he will use it.

MARY KINSEY donates her ability to drive the get-away car for the "Joy Boys" to KENNY COWLES, who, she thinks, can look innocent when the police are watching.

JOYCE KLINE wills her excellent driving skill to BARBARA ZUPPA.

MIKE BENDER gives his ability to give MR. WOODWORTH second degree burns to any careless person, namely BUDDY WEEKS.

NANCY OESCH bestows her ability to keep quiet in 7th period study hall to VADA SCOTT, if she thinks she can use it.

SHIRLEY PIMLOTT wishes to give her duty of being gang leader of "The Water Tower Painters" to brother, BOBBY OBLAK.

DON POWELL leaves his ability to get along with people to PATTY COON.

DENNY RICHARDS wills his ability to wear out a pair of shoes in 3 months to TOM SHUSTER.

money making abilities and hope they don't have as much trouble spending it as we did.

To the FRESHMEN we give our common sense which most of us have lost during our Junior year.

To the HARD WORKING JANITORS we leave all our pencil stubs, stray notes, and chewing gum to be used as they see fit.

To our FRIENDS of Stow High the Seniors give those things most dearest to them as follows:

NORMA SHINKROW donates all her new monthly magazines to the LIBRARY in hopes they'll get rid of all the old ones.

MARY LOU VACHA wills the name "Mammie Lou", which she received from JOEY BRADY, to anyone that wants it.

JOHN CORLEY gives his motor scooter to NANCY NOLL.

KENDRA DOWNING leaves her slave, Marilyn Case, to KAREN KOSKI.

CHRISTINA FARINACCI wills her ability to get caught throwing red knee socks in 6th period study hall to JIM COWLES.

CONNIE GODFREY leaves her reducing pills and diets to PATTI WERLING.

JIM HARTLEY gives his vast record collection to JIM MOLLER in hopes it will make him as popular as it did Hartley.

BILL HATTON wills his ability to change the age on ID cards to anyone with ideas in that direction.

CAROLYN WILSON wills her noisy bracelets, which seem to drive MRS. KAUFMAN crazy, to any one who thinks they can make just as much noise.

DAVE WEISEL leaves his cool green Ford to DENNY KUHLE so he can drive all his girl friends around in it.

CAROL WHITE wills her shorthand assignments to anyone who thinks he can get them so mixed up Miss Townsell gets a large charge out of them.

ART BOOZER gives his ability to scare girls that ride on his motorcycle to TED ROOT if his scooter car will go that fast.

CLASS PROPHECY

We all know what has happened to the class of '58 over the past few years. As we look ahead, we wonder what will become of our friends and classmates in the future.

Let us turn on our supersonic-time-o-meter, given to us by our good friend Captain Zero, to the year of 1968 and see what has transpired over the ten years after graduation.

We will start on the east coast in New York. On Broadway in the hit plays of the year, we see three of our girls as stars. They are LUCIE MORRISON (leading lady of our Junior play), VALERIE CAUDILL, and KENDRA DOWNING.

Setting the stage for these stars are the best stagemen in the business: FRANK and BILL MUSHISKY, LORENZO KISAMORE, BILL GODBEY, and DENNIS RICHARDS.

As we pass the Metropolitan Opera House, we see another familiar name in lights. It is that of Mr. DAN JONES. He is now a great operatic singer and producer.

We see GARY BAKER has his own Jewelry shop here. The name of it is Tiffany's.

JIM HURD is the star player of the New York Yanks.

A world famous modeling agency here in New York is run by BUD STEELE and CHARLES TENNEY.

Now we turn to our favorite spot on the map — Stow, Ohio. As we scan Stow Corners, we see a large building which houses the ARMSTRONG Body Building Gymnasium. Next to that is a small building in which BECKY EVERETT gives advice to students on how to get along with your teachers.

There is now a quaint little photography shop owned by DOYLE CARPENTER. I guess he's trying to be another Bob Cummings. His top models are MARY KINSEY and JUDY DePEW. JUDY's husband, PHIL FREDERICK, has a chain of laundromats all over the country.

DARRYL HICKEY has his own construction and ditch digging company. As a sideline, he and his wife raise "Do-Hickeys."

DON and DICK BENNETT are proprietors of their own chain of Shell service stations.

It's only right that while we are in Stow that we visit our Alma Mater. Our time-o-meter shows us some new teachers. They are JANE CLARK, Home Ec.; ROGER LANGE, Band Director; and the Coach this year is RUSS FOURMAN.

What's that horse and wagon coming down 91? Well it's ROSS HOLDEN keeping in touch with all his classmates. He collects their junk weekly for his junk yard.

Good Heavens! Is that a flying saucer in the sky? Oh no, it's only MARILYN SHAVER doing some stunts with some Mulvany air craft.

There's KATHRYN SHAMBLYN. I understand she just returned from the Olympics with her gold medal — (flour that is).

As we glance through the trailer park, we see MARGE SMITH breaking the 5 M.P.H. speed limit as she chases her little McGoverns.

Let's take a quick look at the new world famous Smorgasbord. Well, well, CARL WALTER is no longer "Board Boy" but owner. CAROL WYLE has advanced from waitress to hostess. Now she gets to hire the girls.

Why, whose hand is that on the Sheaffer Pen advertisement on T.V.? It's JOE BURIAN'S.

Well, there's CONNIE GODFREY on KYW T.V. frantically waving her spatula at her viewers. She has her own Home Economy show now.

As we turn the dial on the time-o-meter to Washington D.C., we see DEANE HAMILTON in a conference with JOHN CORLEY. DEANE is the Vice-President of the U.S. and JOHN is a five star general.

We see JACKIE WITNER, JUANITA BUTLER, CARMEN FULPER, and BONNIE SELTERS singing as a quartet with Billie Graham.

In West Virginia JIM HARLEY is a famous disc jockey. Elvis has been replaced by BUD TICK HILL and his guitar. JIM plays a new album of Westerns by MILDRED MACKEY.

Also in West Virginia, WILMA LAWIS and BERTHA CROSS have opened a Lonely Hearts Club. TOM JOHNSON is their biggest problem.

In Florida we see the Saxe Racing Stables. Here the former JOYCE KLINE (now Mrs. Saxe) is feeding the horses as MARGE JACKSON waters them.

NORMA JONES and her husband Mr. Nighman are the Saxe's best Customers.

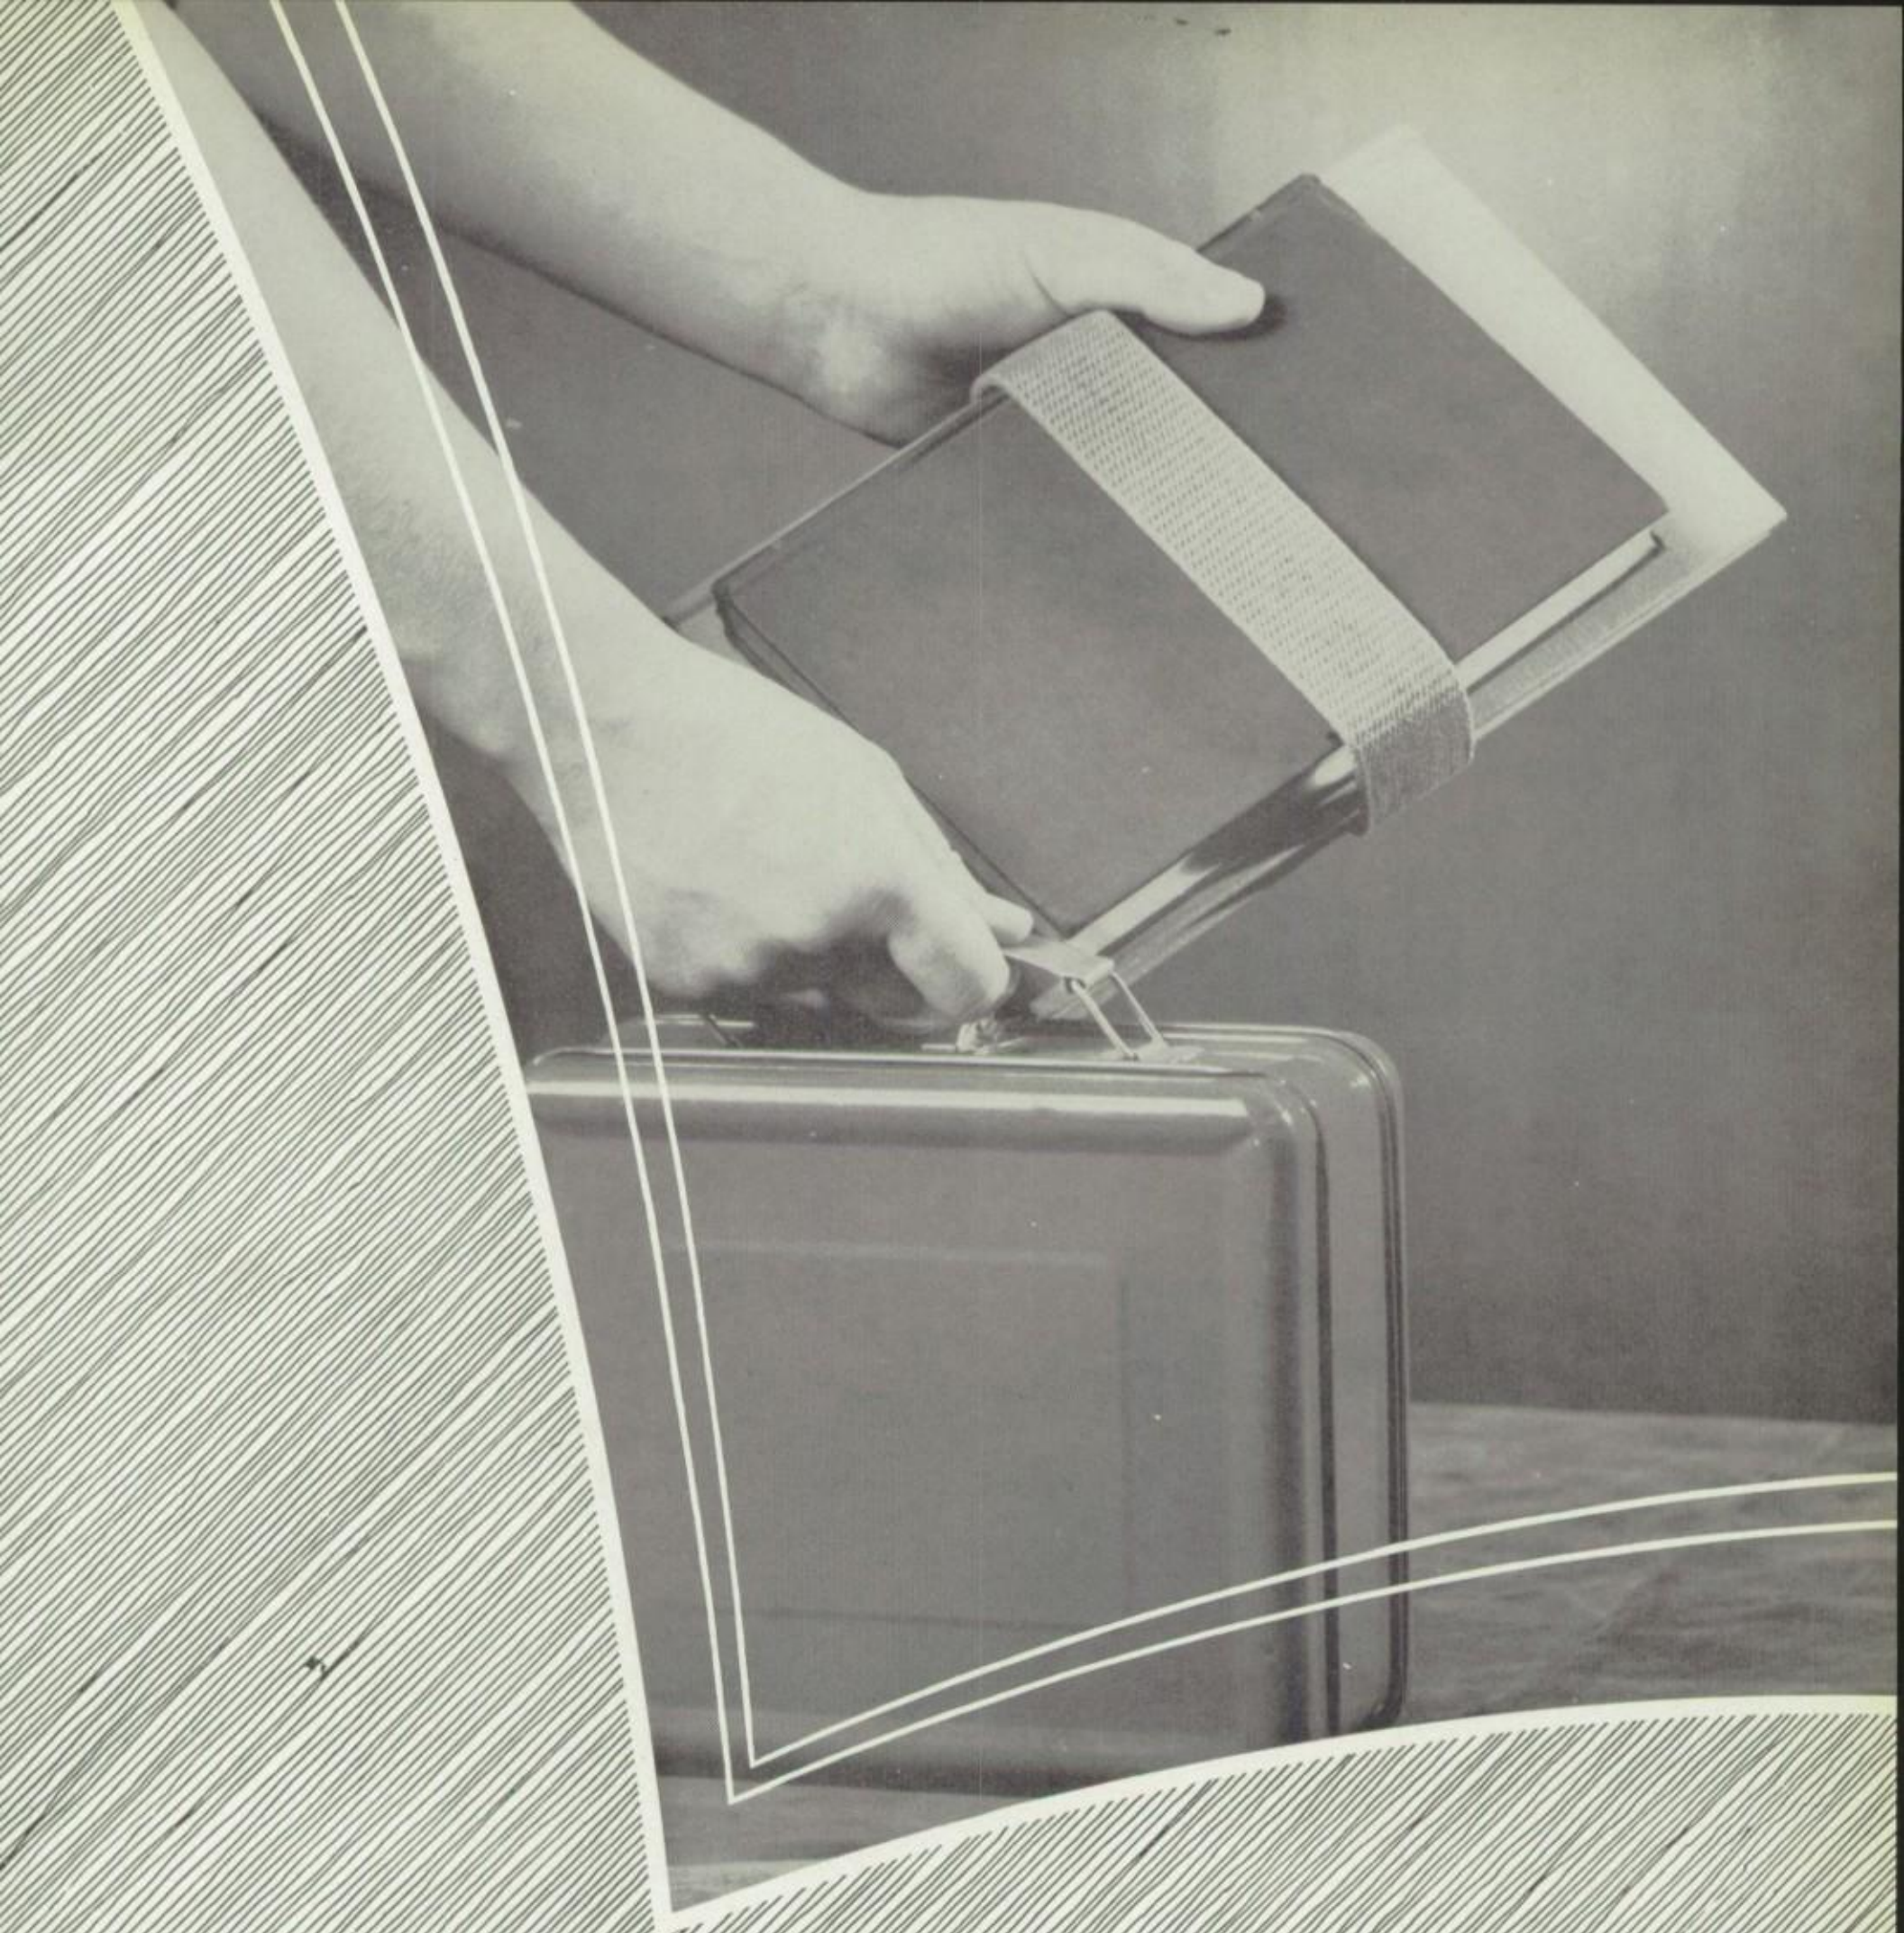

Florida is the home of the Cross Country Pogo Stick Co. owned by DON WITNER.

RALPH CAPILA runs a tall man's clothing store. JUDY CORNELL designs and sells women's lingerie.

HELEN CARACCILOLO and MARY LOU VACHA are neighbors. Their husbands, RON BEVINGTON and DICK VAN SISE, are co-owners in a chain of Isaly stores.

TIM STEMPLE is a professional golfer here. Off the Florida Keys we see BILL HUNT and BOB HUMPHREY diving for buried treasures.

CLASS HISTORY

In 10th grade we were old hands at high school life. In true School spirit Dave Kuhlke and Roy Armstrong tried to paint the water tower. Appreciation was shown by letting them scrub the Silver Lake Town Hall. Another project was taking the bolts from Mrs. Meyers' door. Mary Lou Vacha made a beautiful skirt in Home Ec. Too bad no one fit it. Carol Slane gave Marilyn Shaver a bloody nose in cheerleading. Gretchen Melonas and Russ Fourman came this year.

Our Junior year was filled with many "exciting" little incidents. Many of these took place in Chemistry class. There were many little explosions. Mike Bender gave Mr. Woodworth severe burns by handing him a hot glass rod. Gary Baker, Bill Hatton, Dick Brubaker, Jim Hurd, and Gail Thomas put an egg onto the light and when someone pulled the string attached to it, Well . . . This was the year of the "Revolution." It came about when there was a disagreement concerning — how to spend money and where —. Carl Walter came from Falls. Frank and Bill Mushisky earned their fame as expert stage crewmen.

At last came their Senior year, the end of the struggle. As always there were many activities, some of which we will refrain from entering in this history. One important occasion was the discovery of "The Haunted House." Jim Hartley was always "Life of the Party" with his hep records. Art Boozer was noted for his quick changes from cowboy to motorcycleman. It seems some Seniors tried to revert back to childhood by playing: Policeman, trashman, fireman, and tower painter. Among those were Oblak, Jones, Powell, Kuhlke, and Armstrong. Marilyn Shaver drove into a ditch the hard way . . . Other survivors were: Pimlott, Kinsey, and Wyle. Margaret Cooper left this year and Steve Miller, Harvey Chaney, and Arlene Brinstiter came.

So ends this history with a little sigh of relief from the faculty and possibly some class members, and a hope of better things to come.

CLASS PROPHECY

In Illinois JUDY FREDERICK'S sister-in-law, MARGARET COOPER, is neighbor to CAROLYN WILSON. DON POWELL services them with his diaper service. It seems that MARGARET and CAROLYN both believe in the old saying "Cheaper by the dozen."

DAVE CORBETT is designing house to house telescopes here.

NORMA SHINKROW is known for her books on etiquette.

JOHN OBLAK is the editor of "Esquire" magazine. DAVE KUHLE is his head cartoonist.

As we enter South Carolina we see BARBARA SPEAR, she is now a world famous tobacco auctioneer.

In Arizona, where the climate is good for your health, JOAN IDLE has her own drug store. She carries NANCY OESCH cosmetics in her store.

Let us take a look and see what's going on in Mexico. Here DICK BRUBAKER, GAIL THOMAS, and BILL HATTON have a snappy little club called the Brown Sombrero.

As we look through the forests of Oregon we see SYLVIA MC BEE at the foot of a ranger tower with a large basket in her hand. She is taking lunch to her husband ART BOOZER who is busy rangers.

Everyone is anxiously following the career of the dancing team of ALLAN WORCESTER and SHIRLEY PIMLOTT. They are now in Nevada.

We now turn our time-o-meter to gay Paree. There is JIM MURFIN. He is now a famous artist. He is complete with smock, tam, and MONEY. GRETCHEN MELONAS hands him his brushes.

We are now in sunny Italy. A Trans World Airlines plane is just landing. JEANETTE WILLOUGHBY is a stewardess for them. We follow JEANETTE into a small spaghetti house. This is owned by CHRISTINA FARANACCI.

Now we have seen what has become of all of our classmates, so we can turn off our time machine, satisfied in knowing that all of our friends are successful in whatever they have done.
